

Aska Engineering is an engineering firm based in California specializing in renewable energy and controls & automation solutions.

Job Title: Junior Electrical Engineer

Location: Aleppo, Syria
Position Type: Full-Time
Travel Required: No
Training: Yes
Posting URL: AskaEng.com/careers

Role and Responsibilities

The Junior Electrical Engineer is responsible for reviewing the electrical designs for residential photovoltaic and energy storage systems to ensure they meet local, state and national electrical code and regulations.

- Successfully complete the training program to acquire the necessary skills for performing job responsibilities, including electrical engineering design and compliance with the U.S. National Electrical Code (NEC).
 - Review and revise electrical plans to ensure accuracy and full compliance with the requirements established by the Engineer of Record (EOR).
 - Collaborate effectively with engineering teams based in both Syria and the United States.
 - Provide support on special projects as needed, demonstrating flexibility and technical proficiency.
-

Qualifications:

Required

- Bachelor's degree in electrical engineering
- Intermediate English skills
- Computer skills in Microsoft Office & AutoCAD

Preferred

- New grads with 1+ years of solar experience
 - Top 10 in class
 - Advanced English skills with a certificate
-

Additional Notes

- This job requires working from Aska's Aleppo Office Monday – Friday 8 AM to 4:30 PM Pacific (6 PM to 2:30 AM local time)
- English will be the primary language for all business communications.
- The training program will last 3 to 4 months.
- Compensation will be based on experience and will be adjusted upon successful completion of the training period.

Perks

- Competitive salary and benefits package
- On-the-job training and continuous education (courses, certifications, webinars, & more)
- Opportunity for career advancement and internal promotion
- Supportive, fun, and flexible work environment with regular team activities
- Opportunities for community engagement and volunteering

To Apply, fill your application using the following link

- Submit Application Here (USE VPN, IF THE LINK DOES NOT WORK)